

IAS STAFF MEETING MINUTES

27 October 1972

PRESENT:

G. Allen

STATINTL

STATINTL

1. Mr. Allen held a brief awards ceremony to honor persons who have achieved 10, 15, and 20 years in the Service. He indicated these persons were not being honored because they are aging or survived a certain number of years; instead it is an opportunity to reflect on the long haul and the recognition of honorable service in an honorable career. Mr. Allen commented on the number of crises flaps, projects, and tasks accomplished during the 20-year time span. Each person was congratulated on the part they played in bringing IAS to where it is today.

2. Mr. Allen reported on the DDI Executive Council meeting he attended at headquarters today.

a. The preliminary assessment is scheduled for Wednesday since the DDI decided against working the full weekend. IAS is well into its budget for overtime in this year, and working over this weekend would amount to another 10 percent of our allocation for the entire year.
